NEW YORK, SUNDAY, JANUARY 15, 1922.

Many Resist Call of South for Artistic Work at Home

Amateurs Take Part in Entertainments and Great Houses Are Opened to the Public to Aid the Less Fortunate.

C OME faces and a great many more fancies had been turned toward the mellow allurements of America's Riviera and the more temperate stimulus of the mid-South before last Wednesday's flood of sleet gave to New York a dose of typical January discomfort, but the storm had the immediate effect of turning fancies into prompt determinations.

So down from storcroom shelves came more bags and out of the house held "limericks" came dusty golf outfits, and the trains that lead toward a hundred frostlers places south of the Mason and Dixon line became so crowded that some of them had to be run in two sections.

Some of the undecided ones may have heard Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman de R. Whitehouse tell of the added charms of near tropical life in Florida upon their return, or they may have read how well Mrs. John M. L. Rutherfurd, Miss Ethel Carhart and Messrs. Henry Coleman Drayton and Maxwell Norman played in a foursome at the Everglades Club at Palm Beach in spite of the fact that those Northern golfers had to accustom themselves to sand greens.

Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs has made up her mind to let New York take care of itself and has joined a congenial group at outdoor January lunchcons under Florida palms. Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Bradhurst Field started from the snow covered hills of Fieldston Farm, their place near Tuxedo Park, for Venice, Fla., and will stay there until the crocuses begin to show themselves about Sterlington, Mrs. Henry M. Tilford and Miss Annette Tilford, her popular debutante daughter, will get away for Palm Beach to-day and sacrifice, probably until the end of the season, the charms of grand opera as viewed and heard from box 24 in the Metropolitan's parterre row.

Any person eligible to membership in the fashionable circle of the metropolis who might happen to be to-day at White Sulphur Springs, Hot Springs, Pinehurst, Aiken or any of those delightful stepping stones toward Palm Beach, Miami and the other Florida resorts, or even in Nassau or Bermuda, would find him or herself among bridge playing or golfing friends. For instance, Messrs. C. Oliver Iselin, Richard Peters and Henry A. James are the latest Aiken recruits, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederic O. Spedden soon will be on their way from Wee Wah Lodge in Tuxedo Park to Bermuda.

And yet in spite of the June like January of Florida, New York, with her steam heat, ready made meals, diversions around the corner and similar creature comforts holds her own as the great American resort whether in the ides of August or the slush of midwinter.

Last week society gave touches of color to city life that are interesting beyond society's circumscribed realm, and some of those splashes on a week's picture came from the growing inclination among owners of the Mrs. Vanderbilt greatest houses to open their doors to the public for the public's good.

No doubt many of the men and women who crowded into Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbitt's home last Tuesdey to attend a matinee musicale for Hope Farm were impelled by a strong sense of curiosity to see the beautiful interior of that home. They feasted their eyes on faultless art amid splendid proportions; listened to some good music well played and sung and went away content that they had penetrated at least into a fashionable setting.

Incidentally but essentially the persons who attended the matinee musical at 640 Fifth avenue assured to some unsuspecting boys and girls of the city's social backwash that they will have glorious summer vacations at Hope Farm which was founded up near Millbrook, N. Y., by the late Bishop Greer,

Thus does the fashionable world of New York continue to capitalize itself for the benefit of the less fortunate.

Society in all ages has been marked by amateur achievement. Even an | will give a dance next Thursday night emperor was known to have played the violin rather well. In New York so- at 666 Fifth avenue and on the same ciety the average of amateur ability in the various arts is high, and, better night Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor will still, such achievement is of practical value. The applause that Mrs. Townsend give a dinner. Yet another dinner of Thursday night will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt at 131 when she contributed two piano compositions of Chopin and one of Schumann East Seventy-fourth street. The to the program was, to a very large extent, a compliment to her musicianship debutante element again will be in evi because few there knew Mrs. Morgan as an amateur planist whose ability dence on Friday night when Mrs. would warrant her appearance in public in company with professional per-The less lyrical abstraction of conducting a business for interior at 2 West Fifty-second street for her has not permitted Mrs. Morgan to neglect her gift for the plane. decoration has not permitted Mrs. Morgan to neglect her gift for the plano.

It would be possible to make a lengthy list of amateur vocalists, musicians Burden and Miss Adele Sloane Hamand even of composers whose names are to be included in the representative mond, for whom already dances have social lists. Miss Helen Hoadley and the Duchess de Richelieu are two of been given. many vocalists whose excellence as such have warranted their appearances before discriminating listeners, and among instrumentalists, particularly among violinists, the list is a long and interesting one.

Reference to the violinists of society necessitates a record of regret that the Smyphony Club of New York has passed out of existence after a unique record. This organization of capable violinists, with their own conductor and their series of public and private concerts, gave distinction to fully two decades of winter seasons, but the retrenchment that became necessary in so many essential ways immediately following the war had to be applied to the Symphony Club, and it has lapsed, without any present inclination to bring about

So frequently have Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor opened their house to the public that their great gray stone mansion at 840 Fifth avenue has become a sort of modish town hall. The famous picture lined ballroom for more than a score of times has been a public rostrum or concert hall. The public knows more about the first floor of the Astor residence than about any other of the

So again on Tuesday evening the ballroom of the house will become a pul lic concert hall, this time for the free dental clinic of the Yorkville District Dispensary. The Mendelssohn Glee Club, Mrs. George V. Maynard and Miss Elsie Janis have given their services and will furnish the program. Mrs. Walter Graeme Ellot of 144 West End avenue, Miss Florence James at 41 East Forty-second street and Mrs. Arthur B. Claffin at the Ritz-Carlton are

The concert furnishes another instance of Mr. and Mrs. Astor's interest in neighborhood work in the Yorkville section of the city.

A home in this city-in this instance an apartment-that has been brought much to the public attention during these winter weeks is that of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Field at 690 Park avenue. There on Tuesday afternoon is to take place the fourth of the lecture-recitals of the Schola Cantorum, to which the larger houses of New York always are open. On this occasion Kurt Schindler will speak on "The Spanish and Italian Contribution to Modern Music," with piano illustrations by Alfredo Casella and vocal ones by Mme. Lucille de

Vescovi, who has just come from Rome.

All these are typical of January life in society after the debutantes have

Vescovi, who has just come from Rome.

All these are typical of January life in society after the debutantes have been subdued, and of such also, as a party with an "object," is to be a reception this afternoon in the Ehrich Galleries, with Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Barney as host and hostess. Their daughter, Miss Mary Alice Barney, will assist them in doing the honors of the afternoon.

The occasion for this Sunday afternoon reception in the gallery of a Fifth avenue art dealer is to be the vernissage of Mr. Barney's landscapes. Mr. Barney is by profession an architect, but his abilities extend, through the alliance of the arts, from blue prints of floor plans to the more aesthetic possibilities of oils and water colors. Some of the paintings were made in Scotland, where he passed two summers with his family, and others amid the more for the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anthony Barclay, at Barclay Brook, their home in Short Hills. N. J.

identified for a number of years.

Mr. Barney's venture into the sidelights in art might well be attempted by some other architects among his more immediate friends—by Mr. Francis L. V. Hoppin, for instance. Mr. Hoppin has found relief from even the endless

N. J.

To Arrange Ball for Blue Ridge variations of home and skyscraper designing by reproducing nature on canvas. He found his inspiration in France, and his paintings have charm with a constant swirl of dance and "gibble, gabble, gobble, git."

to Give Dance for

To Entertain for Her Granddaughter, Miss Barbara Whit-

at Fifty-seventh street and Fifth avenue for the first time in several years for a dance which she will give on the night of January 30 for her granddaughter, Miss Barbara Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, whose debut was made on January 4 at the ball which her parents gave at 871 Fifth avenue. Mrs. will include younger members of so-advance of it several dimers will be given.

Another dance of next Saturday night, in the ballroom of the Ritz-Cariton will be the first for this season of the Midyear Dances, a series of subscription dances organized four years ago and continued on account of their great success. The subscribers include some of the recent brides and girls who were introduced to society three or more years ago. In sending out invitations the debutante element was not considered.

The committee for these dances comprises Mmes. Jonathan Bulkley, George C. Fraser, Rudolph H. Rissel, Dave Hennen Morris, Wilfred J. Worcester, Philip G. Bartlett, Richard M. Hurd, John Sherman Hoyt, Pierre Jay and Frederic W. Lincoln. One of the largest dinners in advance of the dance will be given by Mrs. George C. Fraser. The

Blue Ridge School

Mrs. H. Snowden Marshall will giv touch of grimness that gives to them strength. He has been urged to give an exhibition, and, perhaps, he will do so.

And there is Mr. Alfred C. Bossom, who has charmed some of his friends by his gifts of allegorical designs in blue and white that have uniquesty in that each tells its story. Also, there is the father of one of the most popular of this winter's debutantes whose brush has a charming deftness.

Indeed, there is much more to New York society than its surface aspect of constant swirl of dance and "gibble, gabble, gobble, git."

Mrs. H. Snowden Marshall will give the set at 128 East Sixtleth street next because in the patron-cessen of the Blue Ridge Industrial School, of Greene County, Virginia. Arrangements will then be completed for the annual ball in aid of the school which will be held on the night of January 30 in the Della Robbia room of the Vanderbilt.

Debutante Group

ney-Other Events. HERE are in prospect a few more dances for debutantes

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt 2d

Mrs. A. F. Lauterbach, 761 Fifth avenue, afternoon reception.

Mrs. Andrew Dougherty, luncheon at Sherry's. TUESDAY-Mrs. William Constable, 17 West Forty-eighth street, luncheon for Miss Rosalie Paul Barclay.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver G. Jennings, 882 Fifth avenue, dinner, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford, 9 East Seventy-second street, dinner and avenue, 4 P. M. WEDNESDAY-Mrs. H. Snowden Marshall, 128 East Sixtleth street, tea

THURSDAY-Wedding of Miss Leila Howard Burden, daughter of Mrs

Mrs. Arthur Butler Twombly, dinner, Hotel St. Regis,
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor, 840 Fifth avenue, dinner,
Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt, 151 East Seventy-fourth street, dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lindabury, dinner, the Plaza.

FRIDAY-Mrs. Henry White, 2 West Fifty-Second street, dance for her granddaughters, Miss Shiela Burden and Miss Adele Sloane Hammond.

SATURDAY-First Mid-Year Dance, ballroom of the Ritz-Carito H. Heywood Morrill, dance to introduce his daughter, Miss Dorothy

Mrs. Vanderbilt will open her house

ciety,
Mr. H. Heywood Morrill of 129 East
Eighty-second street will give a dance next Saturday night in the new ballroom of the Plaza for his debutante daughter, Miss Dorothy Morrill, and in advance of it several dimers will be

Calendar of Events in Society TO-DAY-Mr. J. Stewart Barney, exhibition of his recent works, followed by a tea, 707 Fifth avenue.

Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp, 247 Fifth avenue, afternoon reception with cert in aid of the Yorkville District Dispensary, home of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor, 840 Fifth avenue, 8:30 P. M.

MONDAY-Mr. Bagby's musical morning, grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria, 11 A. M.

Meeting of the Schola Cantorum, home of Mrs. Marshall Field, 690 Park for the patronesses of the Blue Ridge Industrial School. Special matinee of "Tosca" for the benefit of the Florence Crittenton League, Metropolitan Opera House, 2 P. M.

Joseph Warren Burden, to Mr. Lindley Hoffman Paul Chapin, Grace Church, Broadway and Tenth street, 3:20 P. M. Mrs. Francis S. Hutchins, 840 Park avenue, luncheon for her daughter, Miss Katherine V. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Milbank, 117 East Sixty-fifth street, afternoon re m bridge, arranged by Mrs. Clarence C. Chapman, in aid of the Dobbs Day Nursery, Plaza ballroom, 2:30 P. M. Mrs. Wilber Bloodgood, luncheon for Mme, Alda, Sherry's.

Morrill, the Plaza.

Mrs. Henry F. Cook, afternoon reception, Rose room the Plaza.

for 'Tosca' Benefit Mme. Jeritza to Appear in the Photo. by Title Role at Opera for Crit-

MRS. ARTEMUS

L. GATES

WHO WAS MISS ALICE TRUBEE

Bridge Tournament

DAVISON. +

THE appeal for assistance made by the president and board of tenton League has been generously answered and the special performance For Dobbs Day Nursery of "Tosca" with Mme. Jeritza and Mr. Scotti in leading roles to be given ment, U. S. M. C., and was wounded at Members of the Alumnae Association tenton League.

GEORGE F.

BAKER . JR,

Photographed at MARRIAGE MISS DAVISON to MR.GATES

Society Gets Boxes

*Back to Methuselah' to Start Vassar Fund Drive

The opening incident of the Vassar College Salary Endowment Fund Campaign for the new year is to be a dramatic flustrated reading and interpretation of Bernard Shaw's "Back to Methuselah" in the Lenox School Theater, 52 East Seventy-eighth street, on the evenings of January 3 and 27. The interpretation will be given by Miss Vida Ravenscroft Sutton, assisted by Miss Mary Isabel Garland as the Serpent and Mr. Warren Dahlor as Adam. The role of Lillih will be portrayed by Miss Sutton.

Tabernacle Society

To Hold Card Party

Members of the Tabernacle Society of the Sacred Heart will hold their annual card party in the Waldorf-Astoria Saturday afternoon. Among the women in the Sacred and Mr. Frank A. Munsey.

Sent Scan be been brought before the courts, also wandering and runaway girls, have lemporary sheller with the Atlantic fleet. He is at present attached to the U. S. S. Columbia. The woll repeat to creed, and many of them have been given temporary sheller with the Atlantic fleet. He is at present attached to the U. S. S. Columbia. The woll repeat to the creed, and many of them have been given temporary sheller with the Atlantic fleet. He is at present attached to the U. S. S. Columbia. The wideling will take place in the sparing, soon after his return with the Atlantic fleet. He is at present attached to the U. S. S. Columbia. The wideling will take place in the sparing, soon after he atlantic fleet from its Southern cruise.

Dr. and Served throughout the Atlantic that the hallow in the Atlantic fleet from its Southern cruise.

Dr. and Served throughout the Atlantic fleet flow at the place in the statched to the U. S. S. Columbia. The wedding will take place in the sparing of the statement of their datached to the U. S. S. Columbia. The least of the place in the statement of their datached to the U. S. S. Columbia. The wedding will take place in the statement of their datached to the U. S. S. Columbia. The least of the place in the statement of their datached to

Members of the Tabernacle Society of the Sacred Heart will hold their annual card party in the Waldorf-Astoria Saturday afternoon. Among the women interested in the work of supplying needy churches in all parts of the world with vestments, altar linens and sacred vessels are Mme. Bouyler, Miss Georgias Isaat Thirty-seventh street, or from Mrs. Iselin and Mrs. De Lancey Astor Kane.

William P. Clyde, William F. Sheehan Mr. Safvador E. Ros of 322 West Eightistic Card Device And Mrs. A. C. Macintosh of North Plainfield, N. J. have zhouached Flainfield, N. J.

Notable Weddings and Engagements In Social Circles

Miss Leila H. Burden Selects Attendants for Her Marriage to Mr. L. H. P. Chapin.

ISS LEILA HOWARD BUR-DEN, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Warren Burden, whose marriage of Mr. Lindley Hoffman Paul afternoon in Grace Church, will have only two attendants, her sister-in-law Mrs. Joseph W. Burden, Jr., and Miss Cornelia Van Auken Chapin, youngest sister of Mr. Chapin.

Mr. Chapin, who is a son of Mrs Lindley Hoffman Chapin, will have Mr. John G. Agar for his best man. He has chosen for his ushers Messrs. Chester G. Burden, brother of Miss Burden; Lawrence McK. Miller, G. Macculloch Miller, John Hughes, Lee Garnett Day, William Clark, Francis Biddle, John Chapin and De Coursey Fales and Brig.-Gen. George Van Horn

The ceremony will be at 3:30 o'clock and will be performed by the Rev. William G. Thayer of St. Lawrence School, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Charles Lewis Slattery, rector of Grace Church. It will be followed by a small reception for near relatives and a few close friends at the home of Mrs. Burden, 160 East Seventieth

A number of guests will go from here te Port Richmond, S. I., on Tuesday evening for the marriage of Miss Eliza-beth A. Mohn, daughter of the Rev. Otto beth A. Mohn, daughter of the Rev. Otto L. Mohn of that place, to Mr. James Herbert McGrum, which will take place in the Port Richmond Reformed Church. The bride's father will officiate. Miss Rebecca Mohn will attend her sister as mald of honor. The bridesmaids will be the Misses Grace Morrison of West New Brighton, Ethel Bailey of Port Richmond, Winnie Lewis of Cleveland, Ohio, and Marion Lewis of Utica, all of whom were classmates of Miss Mohn at Vascar, from which college she was graduated last summer. ated last summer.

Mr. Edward McGrum will be the best

Mr. Edward McGrum will be the occa-man, and serving as ushers will be Messrs. John Allen Mohn, brother of the bride; Donald Ziques of Port Richmond, Francis Fargo of Cleveland and Charles Mullick of Concord.

Invitations have been sent out by Mrs. Edward L. Hall for the marriage of her daughter. Miss Elizabeth Livingston Hall, to Mr. Norwood Rathbone. The wedding will take place on the afternoon of February 8 at the home of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parish, 6 East Seventy-sixth street. East Seventy-sixth street.

Although no date has been set, the marriage of Miss Elsa Horne to Mr. Ed-ward S. Voss probably will take place next summer at Southampton, where her mother, Mrs. E. M. Horne, has a country home on the Dunes, formerly the estate of the late Mrs. Frederick Baker. Miss Horne and her mother when in New York live at 550 Park avenue. She is an ork live at 550 Park avenue. She is an expert horsewoman and has won many blue ribbons at Southampton and New York. It was throuh a mutmal love of horses that she and Mr. Voss met last summer on Long Island. Their engagement was announced last week by her mother. Miss Horne is a sister of Mrs. Charles Giffort West, Ir. of Westhers. harles Giffort West, Jr., of Westbury "Tosca' Benefit at Metropolitan L. L. and of Mr. Franklin J. Horne. She recently returned from Europe. Mr. Voss. who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Voss of Merriefield, Hewlett, L. L. served overseas as a First Lieutenant in the Remount Division, He has one brother, Mr. Franklin B. Voss. L. I., and of Mr. Franklin J. Horne, She

Society in New York and Philadelphia is interested in the announcement of the engagement of Mrs. William G. Warder of Philadelphia, to Mr. Richardson Dilworth of this city. Miss Brockie since her debut in the winter of 1919 has been prominent in the young set in Philadelphia. She is a younger sister of Miss Agnes Brockie.

Mr. Dilworth is a son of Mr. and Mrs.

HE appeal for assistance made by the president and board of managers of the Florence Crit-League has been generously ed and the special performance

Members of the Alumnae Association of the Masters School in Dobbs Ferry have organized an auction bridge tournament for the benefit of the Dobbs Day Nursery, to be held at the Plaza next Friday afternoon. The nursery is at 519 East Eighty-sixth street and the members of the association also carry on settlement work in that vicinity. Miss Flora Benjamin is president of the nursery and Mrs. Arthur Wheeler Francis is one of the vice-presidents. Mrs. Clarence C. Chapman of 220 Park avenue has been much need of funds this winter to carry on the work of the league, which supports a shelter for girls at 427 West Twonty-first street. Liquid Lague. She is passing the league, which supports a shelter for girls at 427 West Twonty-first street tainment committee, and tables at $10 or single seats at $2.50 each may be obtained from her.

Deal to Mathusolah' to